FAREWELL RECEPTION FOR FR. CLEMENT,

SUNDAY, JUNE 16TH

PARISH HALL

A MESSAGE FROM FR. JESS

Dear Family of God,

This weekend we will be reminded by Jesus remain in Him and we can do nothing without Him, like a branch that withers when cut from the vine. So, how do we remain in Him?

How do we remain in Jesus? St. John has the answer: "Those who keep His Commandments remain in Him, and He in them, and the way we know that He remains in us is from the Spirit, He gave us." To remain in Jesus is to keep His Commandments, "and His Commandments is this: we should believe in the name of His Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another just as He commanded us."

To believe in Jesus' name and to love one another are two elements that characterized the interior life of a living branch of follower of Jesus. Actually, here St. John is teaching the same thing that Jesus taught when He was asked about the greatest commandment. The first is to love God above all things and the second one is to love your neighbor. Without these two loves animating the inner life of the branch, it withers.

May our Lady of Joy intercede for all of us to love God above all and remain with Him forever.

Yours in Christ through Mary Immaculate,

Fr. Jess Ty

Welcome to Our Lady's Corner—
Your Source for Catholic Inspiration!

Change can be difficult to face and embrace whether we are simply being obedient, or it is a change that we choose, don't you agree?

There are changes coming to our parish. Many are feeling sad, and finding it hard to say goodbye. This actually shows how much we care about each other, and it also shows that the feelings we have and the relationships we built are worth it.

Consider God's plan. Consider that the Holy spirit cannot work if everything is stagnated. He moves and works when we say "yes" to God. He moves and works his wondrous deeds through change. We tend to fear change because of our fallen nature. It is, therefore, very important to place the future in His hands, and to trust His omnipotence.

Jesus has very important work in mind for those who are leaving us, but that does not mean that Jesus does not have very important work in mind for you, too! The future is bright! Let's all say yes to God and place our trust in Him.

You do not have to say goodbye, but rather, see you later. Let's make a plan to live humbly and mercifully so that we all go to heaven. And when we get there, let's find each other, embrace joyfully, and spend eternity arm in arm, as we stand together in complete awe of His Majesty, our Lord!

24-Hour First Friday Adoration Friday, May 3 - Saturday, May 4
