FR. PARKS

A Christian Identity

Everyone wants to know "who they are." It's the reason why children who have been adopted, when they get older, have often a deep desire to meet their birth parents. They may love their adopted parents and be grateful that their biological parents chose life and had the courage to put them up for adoption—but still, they want to meet their biological parents to know who they come from, and the insight that gives them to who they are today.

Some years ago, I was in a Christian Spirituality formation program, and I was taught something about identity that changed my paradigm for thinking about it. The teacher drew three circles that grew progressively bigger. In the center circle was an "R", the next circle had an "I", and the last circle had an "M" written in it. He informed us that they stood for "relationship, identity, mission" respectively. He said that we are meant to be in relationship with God, by which we receive our identity as beloved children of God and from that we live mission. He said the great temptation in life is to live in an inverted fashion, i.e. that I live my mission in the world, I let that tell me who I am, and at my core I hope that external action is "good enough" to be worthy of love. The problem with that strategy is, "he who wins the rat race is still a rat." Which is to say, we will always wonder if we have done enough to be worthy of the love we desire.

The Gospel of Jesus Christ has set us free from that burden. We don't come to God trying to impress him and be worthy enough, we simply come to him as we are knowing that his love goes before us and through our relationship with Him, we discover "who we are", because we discover "whose we are."

Friends, all of us are invited by the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit to be known and loved. It is the adventure of a lifetime and the key to discovering our true identity.

Welcome to Our Lady's Corner—
Your Source for Catholic Inspiration!

Pentecost is May 19. The Holy Spirit is alive and very active in this world, but are we able to hear Him? Do we take time to sit in silence so that we can hear Him?

Imagine someone going to the doctor, receiving advice, declining to follow the advice, and being surprised when their health declines. Or someone who does not keep the appointment at all. Now imagine the Holy Spirit as the doctor of your soul. Will you show up and accept His council? The Holy Spirit's advice and council cannot take place unless we are willing to sit quietly and learn His language, hear His council and act upon it. It requires that we make time to really hear Him. But to really hear Him requires the grace of "spiritual poverty." Spiritual Poverty is a complete emptying of ourselves so that we can be filled with His love.

"Blessed are you who are poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of God." Matthew 5:3. If you empty your heart of yourself, if you recognize that you cannot do even the simplest of things on your own, you are poor in spirit. Only then, can the Holy Spirit fill you with His life, love and best council. Let us reflect upon this throughout the week so we are ready to receive Him next Sunday. Let's pray for the grace of spiritual poverty and learn to empty ourselves of ourselves so the Holy Spirit has plenty of room to dwell in us.

 Looking for a great opportunity for Spiritual Development? The Arizona Peace Center is having a Day of Prayer on Saturday, August 24. Speaker Fr. Chris Alar from the Divine Mercy Shrine in Stockbridge, MA will enlighten us and inspire us. You may know him from his weekly show on EWTN "Living Divine Mercy". Tickets are on sale and will go quickly. Only $20.

Google "Arizona Peace Center" for more information on time and location. Get ready to fill your heart with the Holy Spirit!

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY

Prayer Shawls are given to people in need of prayers and comfort owing to illness, grief and stress and to celebrate life events, such as births, baptisms, marriages and birthdays. We meet on the last Friday of each month from 10 am to Noon in the Parish Hall.
