19TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Be sure of this: if the master of the house had known the hour when the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come." - Lk 12:39-40

There is no cost or commitment and handouts are free. Just drop in and see if it is for you! (*Statistic entirely made up, but probably accurate!)

(Being) Catholic Matters

By David Lins
Director of Faith Formation

What if you lived in eastern Ukraine right now? War, bullets, and violence all around you? You've been told to lock yourself and your loved ones in your home. Ignore what you hear on the other side of those four walls. Resist the urge to despair. You will be alright if you wait. Just wait. Someone will be coming to evacuate you. When that moment comes, don't hesitate. Just follow.

That's the deal.

Do you feel the fear? Do you feel the hope? Do you feel the anxiety that comes with the uncertainty? Will someone actually come? Will you and yours really be rescued?

Then, there is the knock on the door. It's time to evacuate.

Is it difficult to leave everything behind? To be sure. But the decision is not difficult. Something so much better awaits. True peace. That is what you'll finally attain.

There is no physical possession worth more than what is being offered.

Beginning in Luke 12:32, "Jesus said to his disciples: 'Do not be afraid any longer, little flock, for your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom. Sell your belongings and give alms. Provide money bags for yourselves that do not wear out, an inexhaustible treasure in heaven that no thief can reach nor moth destroy. For where your treasure is, there also your heart will be.'"

Later Jesus continues, "Blessed are those servants whom the master finds vigilant on his arrival."

Like the picture I painted at the top of this page, we cannot allow ANYTHING keep us from following our Savior. He wants to rescue us. He wants to save us from the cares of this world and show us the way to peace. If only we have the courage to leave behind everything and follow him.

Psalm 33 says plainly, "Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own." He wants us to be part of his family (Baptism), to have his Spirit (Confirmation), to be one with him (Eucharist), to be free of sin (Reconciliation), to find our true purpose (includes Marriage and Holy Orders), and to be healed (Anointing of the Sick). "Come follow me."

Welcome to Our Lady's Corner—
Your Source for Catholic Inspiration!

"A Humble Soul"

The most pleasing soul to Jesus is a humble soul, and what better example of humility than Mary. "Let it be done to me according to thy word." When we embrace this example, we place God's will above our own in all things. Let us strive for the humility of our mother, Mary.

In this Gospel, Jesus says "Sell your belongings and give alms. Provide money bags for yourselves that do not wear out, an inexhaustible treasure in heaven that no thief can reach nor moth destroy."

Please help the Society of St. Vincent de Paul bring respite and hope to the elderly who are not able to find relief from the summer heat, and you will indeed find "an inexhaustible treasure in heaven."

Our Lady's Guild

Save the date! All ladies of the parish are invited to our next General Meeting on September 20 at 9 am in the Parish Hall. Meet new friends and become involved in parish life.

For information about joining Our Lady's Guild, please contact Judie Melillo at jmelillo@kent.edu

Marian Movement of Priests

Please come join us as we pray for our priests through the intercession of Mary.

We pray the rosary, Chaplet of Divine Mercy, read and reflect on spiritual meditations by Father Stefano Gobbi, and of course we socialize.

We meet after mass EVERY MONDAY, from 9:00 am until about 10:30 am in Room 6 of the Parish Hall.

Come check us out!
All are welcome!
