(BEING) CATHOLIC MATTERS

By David Lins—Dir. of Faith Formation

Wake up. Get ready for work. Go to work (and if you are retired, you've replaced work with hobbies and commitments). Go home. Eat dinner. Get ready for bed. Sleep. Do it again four more times. Do chores and go to Mass on the weekend. Repeat 52 times a year.

In this world full of repetition, it is easy to feel as though we were made for more. And guess what? This weekend's Gospel reading reminds us that we were!

Jesus is speaking to his closest followers—which is what we are called to be. He begins with priorities. He must come first. And this sounds like common sense until we remember this includes our families.

And I quote, "Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me." This doesn't mean God wants us to toss our family aside. Quite the opposite. "Honoring your father and mother" is kind of a big deal to him. (He included it in his top ten!) This means you cannot place your family above God. Fight the temptation to change God to fit your family. Instead, pray for your family to conform to God.

He goes on, "Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it." It's almost as if Jesus knows that family is the greatest temptation for his followers—in terms of placing something above him—but just in case there were some who placed other things above the Lord, he covers it all (including life, itself).

Okay. Now that we've covered the cost to get into the club, what happens in the club?

That is a bit more difficult to share. Why? Because it is something different for each person reading these words—just like each of the apostles had individual callings.

They were called to speak to different people, in different places, and with different methods. All spreading God's beautiful Church.

And the same is true for us.

When we wake up and say a very simple prayer ("God, what do you have for me today?"), and soak our lives in the sacraments, our lives become anything but monotonous. We become alert and obedient to the Holy Spirit's promptings.

Sanctuary & Adoration Chapel Candles

All Catholic Churches have Our Blessed Lord in repose at all times in the Tabernacle on the Altar and in their Adoration Chapel (if they have one). Next to the Tabernacle is a candle that must be perpetually lit to indicate the presence of Our Lord.

In addition to Mass Intentions, we offer our parishioners the opportunity to sponsor a Sanctuary Candle or an Adoration Chapel Candle in honor or in memory of a loved one. We publish these names in our bulletin each week and the sponsor is provided with a card that they can give to the family of the person they are honoring or remembering. You may sponsor a candle for a $20 donation by visiting the office or by calling the office at 480-488-2229.

Welcome to Our Lady's Corner— Your Source for Catholic Inspiration!

Many people are unaware that there is only one Catholic Church approved Marian Apparition in the United States. Our Blessed Mother appeared to a young lady named Adele Brice in 1859 in what is present day Champion, Wisconsin. Adele saw Mary several times, unaware of who She was. She told her parents, but they believed Adele saw a soul from purgatory. Adele was advised by her parish priest to ask who she was if there was another encounter. On her way home from church with companions, Adele saw the Lady again. Adele asked who she was, and the Lady said, "I am the Queen of Heaven." Adele urged her companions, who could not see or hear the Lady, to kneel. Mary told her to begin to teach catechism to the children of the area. And so began Adele's mission. She spent her life teaching children about the Catholic faith; first alone, but then with the help of others. Her father built a small chapel at the site of the apparitions. With great community support, a larger chapel, school and convent were built. In 1871, an area fire occurred, a fire that is considered one of the worst fires in US history. Everything for many miles around was destroyed and 2,500 lives were lost. As the fire burned, Adele, her family and friends prayed incessantly for help from Mary. In the end, the chapel was charred, but otherwise untouched. Area wells dried up, but the well near the chapel did not.

For those who are unable to make an overseas trip to a Marian Apparition site, you do not have to. Google "Our Lady of Champion" for information about Adele's story. Learn about miraculous healings told by visitors to the shrine. Plan a pilgrimage to enrich your spiritual bond with our Mother!

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY

Prayer Shawls are given to people in need of prayers and comfort owing to illness, grief and stress. We also make Prayer Shawls to celebrate a variety of life events, such as births, baptisms, marriages and birthdays. We pray on our shawls as we are making them and, when a shawl is finished, the group gathers around and offers prayers for the recipient.

We meet on the last Friday of each month from 10 am to Noon in the Parish Hall.
