THE EXALTATION OF THE HOLY CROSS

Jesus said to Nicodemus: "No one has gone up to heaven except the one who has come down from heaven, the Son of Man." For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him. - Jn 3:13, 17

A MESSAGE FROM FR. JESS

All that Jesus did in his life is left to us to follow. He humbled himself; he came to do God's will; he loved us until the end... he never gives up on us sinners. True love always involves sacrifice. True love is self-sacrificing love. True love is not afraid to lose oneself, for it is only in dying that we are born to Eternal Life.

According to Patricia Sharbaugh, in her article, in The Priest Magazine, entitled "The Fullness of Love", "God's saving love is revealed on the cross of Jesus Christ. The cross is not merely a means of salvation but is the primary way for Christians to know God."

She continues, "The Cross of Jesus Christ tells us the story of God's love, a story told in the hymn St. Paul quotes in his Letter to the Philippians, in the Second Reading and written in shorter form in his Letter to the Romans: 'For Christ, while we were still helpless, yet died at the appointed time for the ungodly. Indeed, only with difficulty does one die for a just person, though perhaps for a good person one might die. But God proves his love for us that while we were still sinners Christ died for us' (5:6-8).

The cross reveals a God who loves us so much He enters into what opposes Him to redeem it. The God revealed on the Cross is a God of self-emptying, sacrificial love. The love of God revealed on the cross is not a special form of love; it is the fullness of love.

All love is self-emptying, all love is sacrificial, but most of our experiences of loving and being loved only hint at the fullness possible in love. God's love on the cross reveals love's fullness. Love respects the freedom of the other, and when the other is free, control is sacrificed. Love is vulnerable. The freedom necessary for love is revealed on the cross of Jesus Christ. God does not override human freedom in order to save...Again, St. Paul tells us that God's love does not insist on its own way, but instead "bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endure all things."

May the Blessed Virgin Mary help us all to imitate our Lord and participate in showing his fullness of Love in the Cross.

Welcome to Our Lady's Corner—
Your Source for Catholic Inspiration

Sometimes when we look around this world, we see tragedy. We see violence beyond belief and hatred beyond description. We see people do evil things and we think, "How could God allow this?" The shock of violence is real and normal, but we should look at this from a different perspective. Asking how God can allow this, when you know He will not interfere in free will, is a sign that you are still living for this world and not fixing your eyes on heaven, which reveals an attachment. (It is also Satan's stealthy attempt to keep you overwhelmed and in despair, so you lose hope -- be very aware of this.) There is a process in which God is in control. A process that is too big for us to understand, but one in which we can and should trust, and participate in the best of our ability with prayer, sacrifice and genuine caring. We carry on with Heaven in mind as we hold fast Jesus and Mary like the never moving rocks that they are. We never compromise our beliefs, regardless of what is happening around us. We never cease to exercise charity at all times. Hatred and violence are an opportunity for you to practice and exercise your virtues!

And what of attachments? Attachments are like knots that hold us back. Have you ever struggled with a knot in a necklace? A string of Christmas lights? A shoelace? They can be frustrating and slow us down. Spiritual knots are no different. They can stunt our spiritual growth if we let them. Or we can look to Heaven. We can look to Mother for help. Mary has many titles, one of which is Mary Undoer of Knots. Through Her, we can learn to be more in tune to our earthly attachments and knots and call upon Mary under this title to help reveal them to us and untie these knots.

Our Lady of Joy will present a retreat to learn more about Mary Undoer of Knots on October 14th. Please see page 2 of this bulletin for details!

She Shall Be Called Woman

A Program for All Women

Regardless of your state of life, this is a place to both give and receive. To truly understand the way the Lord view femininity is to live as one who is fully alive. In a world that often speaks in cliches and labels, God desires to reveal who he is through a greater understanding of who we are. This program offers real advice on how to combat the mental, emotional, and spiritual challenges women face every day. Each session offers an Encounter, a Message, and Fellowship.

We meet on Thursdays from 9 am to 11 am in the Parish Hall.

OLOJ Library Book Review

Title: Behold Your Mother: A Biblical and Historical Defense of the Marian Doctrines

Author: Timothy Staples

Shelf Selection: Mary

Staples has assembled the most thorough and useful Marian apologetic you will find anywhere by citing scriptural and historical roots and dismantling the objections of those who mistakenly believe that Mary completes for the attention due Christ alone.

Legion of Mary

Meets on Wednesdays from 2 PM to 3:30 PM in Room 1 of the Parish Hall

Legionaries are under the guidance of a spiritual director named by the pastor. The Legion is, in essence, an extension of the heart and hands of the pastor.

Members become instruments of the Holy Spirit through a balanced program of prayer and service. Works may include:

- Parishioner visitation
- Visitation of the sick or aged
- Religious education
- Fatima Pilgrim Virgin Statue rotations
- Sacred Heart Enthronement
- Door to Door Evangelization
- Distribution of Catholic Literature and Rosaries
- First Saturday Devotion

Sanctuary & Adoration Chapel Candles

All Catholic Churches have Our Blessed Lord in repose at all times in the Tabernacle on the Altar and in their Adoration Chapel (if they have one). Next to the Tabernacle is a candle that must be perpetually lit to indicate the presence of Our Lord.

In addition to Mass Intentions, we offer our parishioners the opportunity to sponsor a Sanctuary Candle or an Adoration Chapel Candle in honor or in memory of a loved one.

We publish these names in our bulletin each week and the sponsor is provided with a card that they can give to the family of the person they are honoring or remembering.

You may sponsor a candle for a $20 donation by visiting the office or by calling the office at 480-488-2229.

Today's Gospel reminds us of God's great love for each of us, a love so great that He sent His son not to condemn the world, but to save it, so that we might have eternal life.

Is there a neighbor or friend of yours who is in temporary need because of a loss of a job or an illness? Please call us at 480-346-3058. We want to help!

Marian Movement of Priests Prayer Cenacle

Meets on Mondays 8:30 AM—10:00 AM

Our Lady's Queen of Peace Prayer Cenacle of the Marian Movement of Priests is calling us to experience joy and peace at Our Lady of Joy Parish. We meet every Monday morning after the 8 AM Mass. We say the rosary and Divine Mercy Chaplet in church and then proceed to the Parish Hall for prayers and readings to entrust ourselves to Mary's Immaculate Heart in the spirit of little children. We pray for our priests as well as for the sick, suffering and holy souls. Please join us!

Our MMOP Children's Cenacle meets on Wednesdays from 4:50 PM to 5:30 PM in the Parish Hall
