A MESSAGE FROM FR. JOHN MUIR

I am embarrassed to admit that I frequently find myself dining and socializing with people who have millions and sometimes billions of dollars. I've eaten more caviar, lobster and wagyu steak than most people on the planet. I justify it by saying it's part of my job. But I have seven pairs of nice jeans and expensive shoes.

So it is rather uncomfortable to hear Our Lord say: "My child, remember that you received what was good in your lifetime, while Lazarus likewise received what was bad; but now he is comforted here, whereas you are tormented" (Luke 16:25). Fellow rich people (and if you're American, you're rich), do we not vehemently though quietly object to this parable's karma-esque reward system? Why bless the rich man just to curse him later? And curse Lazarus just to bless him later? So Americans go to hell, while Burundians and Afghans go to heaven? What is going on?

One clue is that the condemned rich man doesn't complain of injustice. Rather, he simply begs to help his brothers to repent. Of what? We don't know exactly. Perhaps another clue is that the rich man now seems more like the downtrodden Lazarus. He knows what it is to be hungry and thirsty, to be wounded in the gutter; that he deserved that, not fancy meals and clothes. Maybe the rich man finally understands how to receive true blessings, but it is too late for him. But not for me. Not for us.

— Father John Muir

Welcome to
Our Lady's Corner—
Your Source for Catholic Inspiration

Jesus said, "remove the wooden beam from your own eye before attempting to remove the splinter from someone else's eye."

What is He telling exactly? It is important to constantly perceive our own sin. Not to cause dismay or despair, but to make us humble at all times. We must strive to see ourselves as God sees us. Jesus told St. Faustina that if she could see herself as He saw her, she would die of fright.

You must understand that if YOU could see yourself as Jesus sees YOU, YOU would die of fright! Wow! Original sin sure makes us dirty - and far more than we know.

Again, this is not meant to bring you down, but to keep you humble and make you increasingly aware of how incredibly small and weak you are. You were not created to go it along. You need Jesus far more that you can realize. You will never in this lifetime comprehend this, but you are encouraged to think about this a lot anyway.

Every morning, look at yourself in the mirror and say, "He is God, I am not." It is good for us to do this frequently. You are smaller than a speck of dust before a God that is bigger than 10 billion suns.

Now that this is understood, how can you not perceive your own sin? How can you attempt to remove the splinter from your brother/sister's eye considering the wooden beam in your own eye? Do you not see it?

Mary, Undoer of Knots, we beg you to help us untie the knot of judgement of others!

Reminder – Our Mary, Undoer of Knots Retreat will be on October 14th. See page 2 for details.

She Shall Be Called Woman

A Program for All Women

Regardless of your state of life, this is a place to both give and receive. To truly understand the way the Lord view femininity is to live as one who is fully alive. In a world that often speaks in cliches and labels, God desires to reveal who he is through a greater understanding of who we are. This program offers real advice on how to combat the mental, emotional, and spiritual challenges women face every day. Each session offers an Encounter, a Message, and Fellowship.

We meet on Thursdays from 9 am to 11 am in the Parish Hall.

Sanctuary & Adoration Chapel Candles

All Catholic Churches have Our Blessed Lord in repose at all times in the Tabernacle on the Altar and in their Adoration Chapel (if they have one). Next to the Tabernacle is a candle that must be perpetually lit to indicate the presence of Our Lord.

In addition to Mass Intentions, we offer our parishioners the opportunity to sponsor a Sanctuary Candle or an Adoration Chapel Candle in honor or in memory of a loved one.

We publish these names in our bulletin each week and the sponsor is provided with a card that they can give to the family of the person they are honoring or remembering.

You may sponsor a candle for a $20 donation by visiting the office or by calling the office at 480-488-2229.

On September 27, the Church celebrated the feast of St. Vincent de Paul, who knew that "God had sent him to bring good news to the poor." Together with your gifts, the members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul continue his work and mission in our parish.

Through your gifts, we are able to "bring good news to the poor" by assisting families with rent and utility bills, food, and other necessities. Thank you!

Marian Movement of Priests Prayer Cenacle Meets on Mondays 8:30 AM—10:00 AM

We pray for our priests as well as for the sick, suffering and holy souls. Please join us!
