A MESSAGE FROM FR. JESS

Dear Family of God,

This weekend Jesus is teaching how to be prepared for his Second Coming. How to be vigilant? Humble waiting for God must be our attitude by following his commandments.

According to Prophet Malachi: "All the proud and evildoers will be burned... but for you who fear my name, there will arise the Sun of Justice with its healing rays." The day is coming when they (the proud) will be reduced to nothing. Yet the righteous will be blessed, and God's light will shine on them.

Two weeks before the end of our liturgical year, the Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches: Before Christ's second coming the Church must pass through a final trial that will shake the faith of many believers. The persecution that accompanies her pilgrimage on earth. The persecution that accompanies her pilgrimage on earth will unveil the "mystery of iniquity" in the form of a religious deception offering men an apparent solution to their problems at the price of apostasy from the truth. The supreme religious deception is that of the Antichrist, a pseudo-messianism by which man glorifies himself in place of God. (CCC 675).

These things are happening in our time. We have to be vigilant by spending more time studying our faith and His Teachings, so we will recognize the false one and not be deceived by false prophets. Jesus said, "Do not follow them."

May the Blessed Virgin Mary, our vigilant Mother of God, intercedes for us.

Yours in Christ through Mary Immaculate,

Fr. Jess Ty, V.F.

Wreaths Across America Project

Our Military Veterans Ministry has partnered with the veteran ministries at the Franciscan Renewal Center and La Casa de Cristo Lutheran Church to purchase wreaths to be put on the graves of veterans at the National Cemetery of Arizona in Phoenix on Saturday, December 13. The cost of the wreaths is $17 each. If you would like to donate one or more wreaths, volunteer to place wreaths, or learn more about the national Wreaths of Honor Program, visit qr.thecasa.org/waa. You can scan the QR code to donate. The deadline for donating wreaths is Friday, November 30.

Welcome to Our Lady's Corner— Your Source for Catholic Inspiration

One night, a young woman came to see St. Faustina Kowalska and informed her she needed prayers. St. Faustina prayed at once, "but her spirit did not leave me. Then I thought to myself, 'if you are a good spirit, leave me in peace and the indulgence I gain tomorrow will be for you.' At that moment, the spirit left my room and I recognized that she was in purgatory."

Prior to becoming pope, St. Gregory the Great came upon a monk who was ill and dying named Justus. Justus, stating that he felt he was past all hope, confessed that he hid 3 crowns of gold in his room (a sin due to vow of poverty). The monks found the crowns and reported back to Gregory, who was taken aback by this serious sin. He ordered that no one may visit Justus, hoping the grief would cause him to repent, which he did. When Justus passed, St. Gregory ordered 30 days of masses to be said for Justus even though he repented prior to his death. He stated "It is a good thing now while our brother which has departed, has remained in the torments of fire, and therefore we must show some charity so that we may procure his delivery; so that not one day pass in which, for his absolution and discharge, the healthful sacrifice (of the mass) be not offered."

Later Justus appeared to one of his brother monks and told him "Hitherto have I been in bad case, but now I am well; for this day I have received the communion." He was out of purgatory and able to enter heaven. St. Gregory attested "they diligently counting the days, found it to be that in which 30th sacrifice was offered for his soul."

Brother and sisters, we may never hear or see a soul in purgatory, but we are no less responsible to pray for them, to offer many masses for them and never forget them. Offer up annoyances without complaining. Pray a rosary for them. Say short prayers like, "Jesus have mercy on the souls in purgatory". You will more than likely be a soul in purgatory one day just as millions of your brothers and sisters in Christ are currently in the flames. Never cease to pray for all, whether you know them or not, whether someone hurt you or not, every day. This merciful charity on your part is very pleasing to our Master, Jesus.

Parish Advent Mission with Fr. Parks

Parish Advent Project Benefiting
St. Agnes & St. Charles
Catholic Schools

Our Lady of Joy continues our tradition of providing Christmas gifts to the students at St. Agnes Catholic School in Phoenix and St. Charles Apache Mission School on the San Carlos Reservation. This marks our 17th year of support for St. Agnes students and the 23rd year of supporting students at St. Charles.

We will conduct a cash/check drive at all Masses on the weekends of Nov. 22-23 and 29-30. Envelopes may be returned to the collection basket or the parish office. Please write "Advent Project" on your check's Memo line.

The teachers will determine the wants and needs for their students at each grade level. For many of the children, these will be the only Christmas presents they receive. With your help, we will make this Christmas the best one yet for the students in these underserved communities!

For the week of November 16-22

The Sanctuary Candle has been sponsored in memory of David Peter Celestina
 at the request of Peter & Barbara Celestina

The Adoration Candle has been sponsored in honor of Kellie Dubrabec
 at the request of Art & Barb Mantoan

May the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen

Want to Join the Catholic Church or Receive a Sacrament?

Classes have begun for anyone wanting to become Catholic or receive Catholic sacraments (baptism, communion, confirmation). OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation for Adults) meets every Sunday from 12:30 pm to 2:30 pm in the Parish Hall.

Sanctuary & Adoration Chapel Candles

All Catholic Churches have Our Blessed Lord in repose at all times in the Tabernacle on the Altar and in their Adoration Chapel (if they have one). Next to the Tabernacle is a candle that must be perpetually lit to indicate the presence of Our Lord.

In addition to Mass Intentions, we offer our parishioners the opportunity to sponsor a Sanctuary Candle or an Adoration Chapel Candle in honor or in memory of a loved one.

We publish these names in our bulletin each week and the sponsor is provided with a card that they can give to the family of the person they are honoring or remembering.

You may sponsor a candle for a $20 donation by visiting the office or by calling the office at 480-488-2229.

The Gospel predicts end times; our challenge though is to live faithfully now. St. Vincent often asked this simple question: What would Jesus Christ do if he were in my place now?

Ask yourself, "What would Jesus Christ do?" and then put your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul poor box so that those who are suffering will be able to celebrate Thanksgiving.

MOVED, MARRIED OR HAD A BABY? NEW PHONE NUMBER? NEW EMAIL?

Stay in touch! We are happy to update your parish record with any recent life changes!
Just call the Parish Office at 480-488-2229.
