“How to Prepare for a Happy Death”

Catholicism for the Curious is a monthly program for all curious people who want to deepen their understanding of Church teachings. The program, led by Deacon Dan, meets the third Thursday of each month at 6:30 pm in the Parish Hall. On March 19th, Deacon Dan will lead a presentation and discussion on “How to Prepare for a Happy Death.” As Catholics, we know that death is inevitable, but it is not the end, but rather a wonderful beginning. We do not know the day or hour we will face this, but we should all be prepared. We will discuss what we should do today to prepare for the trip! There is no charge and need to RSVP. We hope to see you there!

A MESSAGE FROM FR. JESS

Dear Family of God,

How do we truly see as God sees?

We need God in order to quench our thirst and to see what truly can satisfy our needs. We are called to see as God sees. God reminded Samuel in our first reading that “man sees the appearance, but the Lord looks into the heart.” St. Paul in our second reading describes the difference before and after knowing Christ as being transformed from darkness to light. “You were once darkness but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light.”

By grace we have been changed. Our conversion to the light of the Lord has already begun in our baptism, when we were washed clean of sin. The season of Lent is a time for us to renew our surrender to God so He can make further progress in this inner change, emptying us of ourselves and filling us with the Light of Christ so His Light can shine clearly to those around us.

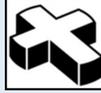

This process is revealed to us in our Gospel today, as the man born blind is first healed of his physical blindness, and then is able to see Jesus through the eyes of faith: first as a prophet, then as the Messiah. At the same time the spiritual blindness of the Pharisees steadily grows worse because of their pride and belief that they know everything.

Let us allow God to shine in us by believing in Him and our union with him in the Sacrament and Charity.

Yours through Mary Immaculate,

Fr. Jess Ty

Welcome to
Our Lady's Corner—

Catholic Inspiration

The citizens of heaven are givers, not takers. The more we give into this world, the more we become takers - and most are totally unaware that they are takers. In fact, most would deny it.

"Let us, therefore, forsake the vanity of the crowd and their false teachings, and turn back to the word delivered to us from the beginning"- St. Polycarp

St. Polycarp was bishop of Smyrna and lived 69-155. His highly regarded writings are well known. And he was certainly right! You are urged to live in this world but not be OF this world. (see the difference?) We, of course, do not turn our back on each other under any circumstances, but we do not let anything in this world take priority over our growing holiness, over God. If we do not turn from this world, we become takers, aware or unaware of it. Remember the gate to a glorious, peaceful eternity is quite narrow, and the pride of taking cannot fit through it.

Jesus never put himself first. Not ever. Mary also did not put herself first. Not ever. There simply is no dignity in putting yourself first. And remember, being selfless does not mean thinking less of yourself, it means thinking of yourself less. This world is pushy and grabby. It is loud and demanding. What a mess! You will find an unending appetite for things. You will live with an unquenchable thirst, and nothing will ever be enough. Me first - I want more - what about me? Yikes! Where is the peace?

We are called to be Christlike. We are called to imitate Him. A huge way to grow in holiness is to put others first. Honestly, there is so much peace in putting someone else first - you will find yourself wanting to let go of control. You will become gentler and easier. Your spirit will settle down. How nice! Try it! What does this other person need from you right now?

Stop seeking satisfaction in this world because - and remember this - you will never find it. Period. Jesus' grace is sufficient. Be Christlike and grow close to Him. Learn from Him. He is meek and humble and His yoke is light.

Sanctuary & Adoration Chapel Candles

All Catholic Churches have Our Blessed Lord in repose at all times in the Tabernacle on the Altar and in their Adoration Chapel (if they have one). Next to the Tabernacle is a candle that must be perpetually lit to indicate the presence of Our Lord.

In addition to Mass Intentions, we offer our parishioners the opportunity to sponsor a Sanctuary Candle or an Adoration Chapel Candle in honor or in memory of a loved one.

We publish these names in our bulletin each week and the sponsor is provided with a card that they can give to the family of the person they are honoring or remembering.

You may sponsor a candle for a $20 donation by visiting the office or by calling the office at 480-488-2229.

In today's Gospel, Jesus says: "My food is to do the will of the one who sent me and to finish his work."

Through your almsgiving you are doing the will of the Father and finishing the work of Jesus. Know that your contributions are multiplied by the donations of others in the St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box.

Easter Flower Fund

Parishioners may make a donation to our Easter Flower Fund in honor or memory of a living or deceased family member, loved one, or friend. Donation envelopes are in the narthex and can be returned to the collection basket or the parish office by March 30th.

Fr. Jess will include the list of those being remembered or honored in his prayers on Divine Mercy Sunday, April 12th, at the 9 AM Mass. The list will also be inserted into that weekend's bulletin.
