A MESSAGE FROM FR. JESS

Dear People of God,

What does it mean for our Lord to Ascend into heaven? What does it mean for us as disciples of Jesus?

The Ascension is not about Jesus leaving us, but of going ahead of us, as our forerunner, our High Priest, and our King, to prepare for us at the right hand of the Father. Far from being an absence, the Ascension is a gift of profound hope, purpose, and power.

Jesus ascended body and soul into heavenly glory not to depart from us but to glorify our humanity. For the first time in eternity, a human body—the Body of Christ—sits enthroned at the right hand of the Father. Humanity itself has been elevated to the very heart of the Holy Trinity. He did not leave His human nature behind. He ascended as the God-man—body, blood, soul, and divinity—and in doing so, He brought our humanity with Him into glory. Where the Head goes, the Body follows, because Jesus ascended, we have hope and destiny of doing the same. “In my Father’s house there are many dwelling places... I am going to prepare a place for you.” (John 14:2). Heaven is opened for us.

The Ascension of Jesus established him as our permanent advocate before the Father. He did not ascend to rest—He ascended to intercede for us forever. “Therefore, He is always able to save those who approach God through Him, since He lives forever to make intercession for them.” (Hebrew 7:25)

The Ascension made Pentecost possible. Jesus Himself said that His going was necessary for us to receive the Holy Spirit: “it is better for you that I go. For if I do not go, the Advocate will not come to you. But if I go, I will send him to you.” (John 16:7). The Ascension unleashed the Holy Spirit upon the Church, the Pentecost. Without the Pentecost, there is no Church. Without the Church, there is no sacramental life, no Eucharist, no path of salvation for the world. Ascension is not a closing—it was an opening of the floodgates of grace.

The ascension means commissioning us as disciples of Jesus, to continue the work that Jesus began. “Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you.” (Mt. 28: 19-20).

Yours in Christ through Mary Immaculate,

Fr. Jess Ty

Welcome to Our Lady's Corner— Your Source for Catholic Inspiration

Did you know that God condemns no one? It's true. We actually do have a choice in our salvation. The choices we make in this life show whether we chose God. How? God sees into the heart. He knows whether you prefer sin. He knows if you are interested in the truth. We can hide nothing from Him.

In John's gospel chapter 12:44-50, Jesus says, "And if anyone hears my words and does not observe them, I do not condemn them, for I did not come to condemn the world but to save the world. Whoever rejects me and does not accept my words has something to judge him. The word that I spoke, that will condemn him on the last day..."

This means that by rejecting His words, you make your choice. He will not reject you, rather, you can choose to reject what He said, which is the same as rejecting God. By not accepting His word, we condemn ourselves. It is important to understand what this means, however, as it is far more than just believing that He is who He says He is. Everything you do matters, and everything you don't do matters. Every intent to repent, every intent to remain in sin. Every choice - yes, every single one shows whether you choose Him. If you reject the gospels, you reject Him. Ignorance of scripture is truly ignorance of Christ. Are you disappointed to find out a certain habit is actually a sin, or are you glad to find this out so you can stop? Are you living for yourself? Are you led by emotion or your will? Are you constantly striving to learn more about Catholicism? Do you read the bible? Do your thoughts and actions show that you choose Him? Saying you believe won't save you. Talk is cheap. Action shows what and who you chose.

Don't take this lightly. This life is but a blink of the eye compared to eternity. You have to choose. And He knows at this moment what your true choice is. If you don't choose Him now, He won't make you spend an eternity with Him. So today, decide. What is your choice?

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL THANKS OUR GENEROUS PARISHIONERS!

Our Lady of Joy's Society of St. Vincent de Paul conference thanks our fellow parishioners for an overwhelming response to the Spring Food Drive, held on the weekend of April 25th.

Your generosity added 5,100 pounds of food and essentials to the pantry at Foothills Food Bank, as well as $5,552 to aid their fine efforts.

Thank you very much for providing us the means to help feed, clothe, heal, and comfort God's poor and needy.

Parish Security Plan

In accordance with our Parish Security Plan, our Ushers have been trained to assist with emergencies. Should you become aware of an emergency during Mass, please let it be known to an Usher wearing a yellow armband.

Today as we celebrate the feast of the Ascension, we are reminded that Christ's saving work on earth continues through his disciples...and now through us.

Is there a family you know who needs assistance? Please call the Society of St. Vincent de Paul so that together we can bring peace to those who are hungry.

DO YOU KNOW ABOUT TILMA?

In October 2024, Bishop John Dolan announced his historic seven-year Pastoral Plan on evangelization. Inspired by Our Lady of Guadalupe, the patroness of the Diocese of Phoenix, the plan begins in January 2025 and leads up to December 2031--the 500th anniversary of Our Lady of Guadalupe appearing to Saint Juan Diego on Tepeyac Hill in modern day Mexico City.
