OLOJ PRESCHOOL THANKS KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS FOR THEIR GENEROUS SUPPORT OF OUR PARISH SCHOOL

Our Lady of Joy Preschool thanks our Knights of Columbus for their generous donation of $5,000 in support of our preschool program.

Their kindness and dedication to our community make such a meaningful difference in the lives of our students. With this gift, we are able to purchase much-needed outdoor equipment for our children to enjoy during play and learning time. Arizona weather can be very hard on outdoor materials, and replacing equipment is an ongoing need for our school. We are excited to use a portion of the funds towards new scooters, outdoor balls, and a mobile outdoor storage bin. These items will bring so much joy to our students while also encouraging active play, coordination, and social development.

We are deeply grateful for your continued support of the preschool and for investing happiness and growth of our young learners.

Your generosity is truly a blessing to our school community!

A MESSAGE FROM FR. JESS

Dear Family of God,

What is The Sacred Heart Devotion and why consecration to Him is important?

On this Corpus Christi Sunday I will be talking about the Sacred Heart because the Eucharist is His alive, beating Heart, full of love for all Humanity.

Why the devotion? Because Jesus said, "Learn from me, for I am meek and humble of Heart." (Matthew 11:29). It is Jesus Himself inviting all of us to enter into the very center of His Divine and Human love. Many saints (St. Bernard Clairvaux, St. Bonaventure, St. Gertrude, St. Catherine of Siena, St. Philip Neri, St. John Eudes, St. Margaret Mary, etc.) and Popes (Pope Pius IX, Pope Leo XII, Pope Pius XI, Pope Pius XII, Pope Benedict XVI), have understood and proclaimed this with fire.

When Jesus gave the ultimate sacrifice on the cross, his heart was pierced with a lance and there "flowed out blood and water" (John 19:34). The Church Fathers interpreted this blood and water as representing the waters of Baptism and the Blood of the Eucharist, hence; the Sacred Heart is the source of the Sacramental life of the Church.

The Sacred Heart is not sentiment. It is theological reality—the infinite love of God made visible, tangible, that is, the Holy Eucharist, is Body, Blood, Soul and divinity of Jesus offered up for the sake of every soul.

Jesus wants us to know Him; to know how much He loved us, he wants to enter a relationship with us. Devotion the Sacred Heart, then, is devotion to the very essence of God, the deepest core of His Divine nature. We expressed this devotion by coming to Mass every First Friday of the Month, spending a Holy Hour with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, by Consecrating ourselves and our Family to him and doing Enthronement in our home, celebrating his feast Day on a Friday after Corpus Christi Sunday.

May Mary, the Mother of God help us all to have an intimate relationship with Jesus.

Yours in Christ through the Immaculate Heart of Mary,

Fr. Jess Ty

Welcome to
Our Lady's Corner—
Your Source for Catholic Inspiration

Wow, what a God we have! As if his Passion wasn't enough, He gives Himself to us in Holy Communion. Can you fathom how badly He wants YOU? This is a wonderful thing to sit and think about, and we all should. June 4th is the Feast of Corpus Christi, but we celebrate it today, June 7th. Why? This is the day that we honor and celebrate the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. It is not a symbol. It does not stand for anything. It is not a ritual we just sort of do to remember the last supper. It is literally Jesus, in every way.

So how do you receive the Son of God? With reverence the entire Mass in preparation? Do you arrive early to take time to become still? Do you come up during Holy Communion at Mass with reverence? Do you say "Amen" which means "Yes, I DO believe that I am receiving Jesus Christ"? (Please don't say "thank you," say "amen" which means, "I believe.") Do you stay until the very end of Mass, or are you one of the "Faithful departed" who leaves early? While you are on your own spiritual journey, please increase your reverence wherever needed. Please don't treat Jesus, who loves mankind so much, as a dead object and then go about your business. He deserves more - much more from all of us. What changes can you make?

Celebrating that Jesus, without question, simply IS the Eucharist comes just days before we honor His most Sacred Heart on June 12th. Please know that every sin batters His heart. As this month is dedicated to His heart, let's take care of it. Let's take personal responsibility to treasure and treat with tenderness His kind, generous heart which has already been so offended. When was the last time you felt offended? Multiply that times one million and it still does not come close to the hurt we cause Him. He has told this to many mystic saints (a mystic is one who has divine visions). He made this clear to Saint Faustina.

Let's slow WAY down and think daily about His heart throughout the month of June. How can you treat It with more reverence? More tenderness? He loves it when you seek His mercy in confession. He loves your visits to adoration in our chapel. He loves to tenderly unite with you in Holy Communion. He loves when you show mercy and forgiveness to others because it gives them hope that all is not lost if they turn to Him. What other ways can you think of? There are plenty so keep your mind and heart on it this month.

SANCTITY OF LIFE

Immaculate Mary

Medieval Origin: A Miracle Title (12th–14th century Europe)

Core idea: Mary brings joy by delivering the faithful from danger.

Vignette: Medieval chronicles from France, Spain, and Italy tell a popular story in which three Christian knights, captured and imprisoned by Muslim forces, prayed to the Blessed Virgin. Mary appeared, broke their chains, and led them out of captivity. Their sudden liberation was celebrated as a "joy" granted by Our Lady, and shrines and images invoking her as "Notre Dame de Joie / Madonna della Gioia / Señora de la Alegría" spread across Europe.

This is why the title appears in medieval Marian litanies, miracle books, and devotional art. (This medieval background is not tied to any Vatican-approved apparition; it is a devotional title arising from miracle tradition.)

DO YOU KNOW ABOUT TILMA?

In October 2024, Bishop John Dolan announced his historic seven-year Pastoral Plan on evangelization. Inspired by Our Lady of Guadalupe, the patroness of the Diocese of Phoenix, the plan begins in January 2025 and leads up to December 2031--the 500th anniversary of Our Lady of Guadalupe appearing to Saint Juan Diego on Tepeyac Hill in modern day Mexico City. OLOJ Library Book Review

Title: The Everlasting Man

Author: G. K. Chesterton

Locations: Bookshelf section, Popular Author or book cart

Content: What, if anything, is it that makes the human uniquely human? This, in part, is the question the author starts with in this classic exploration of human history. Responding to the evolutionary materialism of his contemporary (and antagonist) H.G. Wells, Chesterton affirms human uniqueness and the unique message of the Christian faith.
