WHAT'S ON FORMED NOW?

Thursday, July 16 is the Feast Day of Our Lady of Mount Carmel commemorating the apparition of the Virgin Mary to St. Simon Stock and the establishment of the Carmelite Order. According to Carmelite traditions, it is also the date that our Blessed Mother gave St. Simon Stock the brown scapular.

Learn from Dr. Edward Sri, a renowned Biblical scholar, the answers to some commonly asked questions about Mary by watching the What Catholics Believe episode on Formed.

What Catholics Believe About Mary: Immaculate Conception, Virginity

Join Dr. Edward Sri as he answers some of the internet's most asked questions about Mary. Who is Mary? Why do Catholics pray to Mary? How could she be a virgin if Jesus had brothers and sisters according to the Bible? Find out answers to these and more questions in this episode of What Catholics Believe.

A MESSAGE FROM FR. JESS

Dear Family of God,

The parable of the Sower in our Gospel this weekend, challenges us to listen intently to God's Word, to be open to it, and to allow our lives to be shaped by its power. The parable reminds us that man's reception of God's Word is determined by the condition of his heart.

Jesus explains the Parable of the Seed and the Soil: "The seed sown on rich soil is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields a hundredfold..." (Matthew 13:23). To listen to the Word of God is not enough, we have to understand it too, that is put it into practice in our lives so it will bear fruit. Saint James said in his letter: "But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves" (James 1:22).

God said through Prophet Isaiah: "My word shall not return to me void, but shall do my will, achieving the end for which I sent it." (Is. 55:11). God has a purpose why He created us and put us in this time and place of the world to help others know Him, love, adore Him and serve Him so we will all be at peace now and forever happy in heaven. Saint Paul encourages us saying: "I consider that the sufferings of this present time are as nothing compared with the glory to be revealed for us" (Rom. 8:18). Seed has to die in order for new life to begin with abundant fruits.

May Our Lady of Joy help us to be doer of the Word like her.

Yours in Christ through Mary Immaculate,

Fr. Jess Ty

Why Catholics Should vote - Part II:

Right to Life: Human life must be respected and protected from the moment of conception. From the first moment of existence, a human being must be recognized as having the rights of a person, including the irrevocable right of every innocent being to life.

Marriage and Family and Parental Rights: The political community has a duty to honor the family, to assist it, and to ensure the freedom to establish a family, have children, and bring them up in keeping with the family's own moral and religious convictions. The right and duty of parents to educate their children are primordial and inalienable.

Religious Liberty and Freedom: The fight for religious liberty is neither a moral license to adhere to error nor a supposed right to error, but rather a natural right of the human person to civil liberty. This natural right ought to be acknowledged in the juridical order of society in such a way that it constitutes a civil right.

Parents have the freedom to process their faith, to hand it on, and to raise their children in it, with the necessary means and institution.

So, where did all this come from? Catechism, our church teachings. We, as Catholics are morally obligated to vote, and to vote according to the Catholic Church teaching. We are responsible for being well-formed Catholics. We must take personal responsibility to become well-formed, and to vote as such. Please review last week's bulletin article (available online if you don't have it) and contemplate this week's article. Then, vote with an informed Catholic conscience.

SANCTITY OF LIFE

Our Lady of Joy Sanctity of Life meetings are held on the second Tuesday of each month from September through June from 9 AM to 11 AM in the Parish Hall. New members and guests are always welcome! We support and actively work on projects in our community that affect all life from conception until natural death.

Title: Francis and Clare: The Complete Works

Authors: Francis of Assisi and Clare of Assisi

Locations: Saints or book cart

Content: The relevance of Francis's and Clare's vision for today: "It calls us to revitalize our lives and those of others, and indeed to renew the very life of the Church in these times of crisis." They each gathered communities of like-minded persons to live out a radical commitment to the Gospel message of poverty and in the process left a legacy that has captured the imagination of both believers and non-believers throughout the ages.
